The stallion Gando V.Z. proves during his training to be of high quality. He shows a lot of jumping talent and he didn't inherit his talent from a stranger. His sire is Cardento, who is ranked 10th in the WBFSH 2016 ranking of jumping sires. Cardento has won the silver medal at the WC, EC and the Olympic Games in Athens under Peter Eriksson. He also won the Nations Cup of Rome, Drammen and Ikast and the great prizes of Holte, Helsingborg, Angelholm, Gera and Kungsbacke. His descendants are also very impressive. For example, in 2015 more than 25 of his offspring were acting at 1.60m level and they won several Grand Prix's

Dam's sire Burggraaf is certainly not unknown in the jumping world. It is a world-famous stallion with descendants in the absolute top. He also produced 125 approved stallions and 70 staatspremium mares. With his jumping, he collected an amount of over six million dollars.
