Good Yellow is one of the breeding mares of Stoeterij V.Z. Hackerom. She is a jumping horse with Hamlet as a sire. The stallion Hamlet comes from Nimmerdor, who has had a great influence on both Dutch and International breeding. He achieved good results at the highest level, and that talent was also passed on to Good Yellow.

On dam's side, the mare descends from Animo, who performed excellently under Morten Aasen during the Olympic Games in Barcelona in 1992. He possesses a fighter mentality, extreme caution and immense ability. He attributes these qualities to his descendants, as well as to Good Yellow.
